THis Catalogue consists of the Library of the Reverend and Learned Dr. Annesley, lately deceas'd, a Person so Eminent for his Piety and Usefulness, being generally known, and universally esteem'd in this City, that I forbear any farther Character. I presume I may without Offence say, That the Books are considerable, and well chosen, being the best that cou'd be bought, and generally Valu'd in his time. The Fathers, the best Editions, both Greek and Latin, that are extant ; Church-History and Councils, valuable ; School-men and Casuists, not common ; The Commentators and Practical Expositors, Authors of great Repute (if not of Prime Note) when he Purchas'd them. Philology, Humanity in Greek and Latin, not many, but very scarce : The whole is Inviting to all Studious and Knowing Persons, and will appear so, in the Perusing of the Catalogue, as also upon the View of the Books Three Days before the Sale.
